Overview

Belgium's newest Megapack project in Harmignies, projected at a cost of $87.4 million, is poised to become the country's most significant energy storage facility. The site will feature a 75 MW/300MWh capacity, repurposing a former cement factory to harness modern, sustainable. Green Turtle battery park, among the largest in continental Europe, will feed 700 MW of renewable energy back to the grid. Green Turtle, situated on the Rotem industrial site in Belgium's northwestern Limburg province, was originally planned. Swedish engineering firm Sweco has won the contract to design one of Europe's largest battery parks which will be built in Belgium, the company confirmed on Monday. Sweco has been selected by Dutch energy company GIGA Storage to design its "Green Turtle" battery park project, a sprawling facility. The GIGA Green Turtle battery park is a major battery energy storage system (BESS) being developed by GIGA Storage Belgium at the Rotem/Dilsen-Stokkem industrial area in Limburg province, north-western Belgium. This facility will have a storage capacity of 2,800 MWh of electricity. Following earlier projects in Vilvoorde and Kallo, this will be ENGIE's third large-scale Battery Energy Storage System (BESS) project in Belgium, marking another.
