Overview

The tier system is not a measure of panel performance, but rather a classification of the manufacturer's reputation, production scale, and financial stability. This ranking is most often used by financial institutions to assess the risk of funding solar projects using certain. The solar panel manufacturer tier system was developed by Bloomberg New Energy Finance (BNEF) to identify major brands in the solar industry. It identifies so-called “bankable” brands—those that are most “likely to be offered non-recourse debt financing by banks. Find the solar panels for your home at A1 Solar Store.
